

BILL BLANCHARD

National Account Manager Bill Blanchard joined Adelsheim Vineyard in 2001 after more than 20 years of work in all three levels of the wine business in the west coast states. He brings a wealth of experience and knowledge and a superior level of customer service to his work with 23 of our distributors in the U.S., western Canada and the Caribbean.

Bill hails from the east coast and received his business degree at the University of Georgia. Outside of wine, Bill has special interest in camping, fishing, gardening, backpacking, John Deere tractors, and in being a Dad.
