

Wine Spectator

November 6, 2009

A Publication of M. Shanken Communications, Inc.

Adelsheim 2007 Willamette Valley Pinot noir 90 points

Polished and open-textured, with an airy feel to the red cherry, tobacco and spice flavors, floating easily over refined tannins and lingering on the finish. Drink now through 2013. 18,430 cases made. —H.S.

