

2004 ELIZABETH'S RESERVE PINOT NOIR – Media Reviews

Robert Parker's Wine Advocate, June 30, 2006, Issue #165

91 Aromatically, the 2004 Pinot noir Elizabeth's Reserve offers candied red cherries. A pretty, sappy wine it is medium-bodied, suave, pure and long. Its broad personality unleashes soft layers of sweet red cherries on the taster's palate in a truly seductive style. Drink it over the next 5-6 years. -Pierre Antoine-Rovani
