

2004 WILLAMETTE VALLEY PINOT BLANC – Media Reviews

Robert Parker's Wine Advocate, June 30, 2006, Issue #165

90 A fine value, the 2004 Pinot Blanc offers aromas reminiscent of intense white fruits, coated with honey, flowers, and almonds. Rich, spicy, and oily-textured, this medium to full-bodied wine is jam-packed with spices, apples, pears, and nuts. Who knew Oregon could make Pinot Blancs like this? Drink it over the next 2-3 years. –Pierre Antoine-Rovani